GTT pays its employees a special cost-of-living bonus

Paris – January 15th 2019. In line with the measures in support of purchasing power announced by the French President in December 2018, GTT has decided to pay all staff a special bonus of 1,000 euros.

The bonus will be paid in February 2019 and will be exonerated from social security contributions and income tax, under the conditions laid out in the law.

The bonus supplements GTT's salary policy, which notably includes annual increases in favour of employee purchasing power, as well as profit-sharing and incentive schemes.
